

Children's guide to coronavirus

We know many children will be anxious or worried about the coronavirus outbreak and that many will have questions about everything that is happening at the moment.

We have put together a short guide to help explain to children, in language they can understand, some of the issues surrounding coronavirus.

Thousands of people have downloaded the guide already or shared it on social media - so please do share with parents or groups you know if you find it useful.

We have also created a page full of advice, information, suggestions and resources for parents, educators and other professionals who work with children, to help during the pandemic.

Our work

Find out more about our work helping to promote and protect the rights of children, especially the most vulnerable, and what we're doing to stand up for their views and interests.

Behind closed doors

Focusing on the mental health and well-being of detained children.

Digital

With an entire generation of children now growing up digitally, we work to protect and empower them online and hold social media companies to account.

Children in care

Supporting the wellbeing and aspirations of children in care, and supporting care leavers to achieve their full potential.

Vulnerable children

Shining a light on the extent and impact of child vulnerability in England, focusing in particular on children with undiagnosed mental health issues, those excluded from mainstream education and children in gangs.
